Exercise 5

- Create your cart using a DataList control.
- Let there be three books in a row.
- Create a stored procedure to display data from the ShopCart table. Sum the amount of books of the same type. Connect the controls with the received from the stored procedure data.
- In the stored procedure calculate the total value of all books and display it in a web form.